Graduation camp-out will be May 12-13th at Baltimore County Fish and Game on Northwind. Arrive as early as 4:00 to set up. Dinner will be served at 7:00. Sign up sheets are out - please sign up so we will know how much food to provide. We'll be serving hamburgers, hot-dogs, salads and a dessert. Also provided will be the "fixin's" for S'mores. Bring your own drinks, please.

The next day (Sat. 5/13) we will have breakfast available for $5.00 per family. Pancakes, sausage and scrambled eggs along with juice and milk.

YOUTH PROTECTION TRAINING

Following are the dates still available for Youth Protection training. If you are going to be a five day volunteer at Day Camp, June or July, you must have Youth Protection Training:
May 23, 2006 - 7:30 - Kenwood Presbyterian Church
June 8, 2006 - 7:30 - Timonium United Methodist Church

If you're attending either of these training sessions, please contact Carolyn Adamiak at (410) 252-8743 or email to bobwhitecsa@comcast.net. If you can't make either session, please contact Jeff, Keith or me and let one of us know. If we have enough interested, we can possibly schedule a private training session for our pack's volunteers. If you trained last year, you're fine. If you trained in 2004, you need to renew on-line.

Also, the training for Day Camp, believe it or not is Saturday, May 13th at 9:00 am at Baltimore County Game and Fish - where we'll be camping. So, if you want to eat your breakfast, and then train - you'll be ready! The other day is June 6th at 7:00 at Hiss United Methodist Church.
